

Below you can see the menu path to find the root certificates on your phone available for MIDlet signing.

Contents

- 1 S60 phones
- 2 Series 40 phones starting from 3rd Edition
- 3 Earlier Series 40 phones \(1st and 2nd Edition\)
- 4 Series 80 phones

S60 phones

The root certificate list can be found at:

- Application Menu » Tools » Settings » (General) » Security » Certif. management » Authority

(since 3rd Edition, CA-certificates for code-signing begin with ?MIDP?)

How to see what the selected certificate can be used for?

- Options » Trust settings » App. installation » Yes

Series 40 phones starting from 3rd Edition

The root certificate list can be found at:

- Menu » Settings » Security » Authority certificates » Certificate list

How to see what the selected certificate can be used for?

- Options » Select use » Application signing » Checked

Earlier Series 40 phones (1st and 2nd Edition)

The root certificate list can be found at:

- Menu » Web or Services » Settings » Security settings » Authority certificates » Certificate list

How to see what the selected certificate can be used for?

- Options » Select use » Application signing » Checked

Series 80 phones

The root certificate list can be found at:

- Open » Tools » Control panel » Security » Certificate manager » Other

How to see what the selected certificate can be used for?

- View details » Trust settings » Java installation » Yes