

Phone_Vision_library

- Phone Vision is a rudimental computer vision library for S60 devices. This is the output of a project at the Bauhaus University Weimar. It implements some basic algorithm for edge/corner detection and some higher level, like cross-correlation and feature tracking. It's under GPL licence.

The homepage of the Augmented Reality project is also worth a look.