

UserEnvironment

Access to services that provide data from users' physical surroundings

This capability allows the software to record audio, use camera etc. This capability does not allow determining the user's location. For that, see Location.

This capability can be used with self-signed applications.